ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr. Ajmera submits the Appellate Authority has now started functioning and, therefore, the petitioners may be relegated to the remedy of Appeal. Mr.Patel submits that he may be granted time to avail the remedy before the Appellate Authority and in the meanwhile the position as obtaining today, on the basis of the interim order passed by this Court, may be allowed to continue for a period six weeks. This suggestion is acceptable to Mr.Ajmera. Accordingly six weeks time is granted to the petitioners so as to avail the remedy of Appeal before the Appellate Authority in accordance with law and for a period of six weeks from today the position as obtaining today, on the basis of the interim order passed by this Court, shall continue. Mr.Ajmera on behalf of the respondent has stated that the Appeal shall not be opposed on the ground of limitation in case the same is filed within six weeks.

In view of this, Mr.Patel seeks to withdraw this Special Civil Application. The same is hereby dismissed as withdrawn. Rule is hereby discharged. No order as to costs.
